

Jocelyn and Chris Talking Points

August 2019

Please note: if artist is doing an acoustic performance as a part of your program, it's important to convey to viewers or listeners that their shows are full-band electric.

Bullet points:

- siblings who grew up in rural upstate New York
- Jocelyn is 1 year older
- both Jocelyn & Chris are graduates of Harvard University and maintained recording and touring while at Harvard
- they currently have 6 albums
- appeared on NBC's Today Show in March
- currently on a month-long national tour
- current single "Kill in the Cure" was the #1 Most Added single to Triple-A radio in the US in its first week
- current single "Kill in the Cure" is #29 on the Billboard Triple-A Top 40
- performing with Jocelyn & Chris are Dan Zavadil on bass and David Bourgeois on drums and percussion. Bourgeois also produced their albums

